On November 9, 2005, an application was filed by Qwest Corporation (Qwest), of Denver, Colorado, seeking approval to amend its interconnection agreement with New Rochelle Telephone Company (New Rochelle), of White Plains, New York, which was previously approved in Application C-3408. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on November 11, 2005. No protests were filed; therefore, this application is processed pursuant to the Commission's Rule of Modified Procedure.

Pursuant to Section 252(i) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (the Act), Qwest and New Rochelle entered into an interconnection agreement, which was approved by the Commission on June 14, 2005, in Application C-3408. In the current application, Qwest and New Rochelle seek to once again amend their agreement. Executed copies of the amendment are contained within the application.

The amendment does not discriminate against any telecommunications carrier. Furthermore, the implementation of the amendment is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity.

Section 252(e) of the Act requires this Commission to review negotiated interconnection agreements to ensure they comply with Sections 251 and 252(d) of the Act, as well as all applicable state laws. Using those standards, the amendment filed November 9, 2005, should be approved.
