On February 24, 2006, Qwest Corporation ("Qwest") of Denver, Colorado, filed an application seeking a Triennial Review Order and a Triennial Review Remand Order amendment with New Edge Networks ("New Edge"), Vancouver, Washington, for the state of Nebraska, to their interconnection agreement which was previously approved in Application No. C-2799. Notice of the application was published in The Daily Record, Omaha, Nebraska, on March 3, 2006. No protests were filed; therefore, this application is processed pursuant to the Commission's Rule of Modified Procedure.

On October 8, 2002, in Application No. C-2799, the original interconnection agreement between Qwest and New Edge was approved by this Commission. In the current application, Qwest seeks to amend the agreement by adding a Triennial Review Order and Triennial Review Remand Order amendment to the interconnection agreement. An executed copy of the amendment is contained within the application.

The amendment does not discriminate against any telecommunications carrier. Furthermore, the implementation of the amendment is consistent with the public interest, convenience and necessity.

Section 252(e) of the Act requires this Commission to review negotiated interconnection agreements to ensure they comply with Sections 251 and 252(d) of the Act, as well as all applicable state laws. Using those standards, the amendment filed February 24, 2006, should be approved.
